

LEGION CONVENTION GETS UNDER WAY TODAY

RE-ALLOCATE ROCKYFORD'S BRIDGE FUND

Will Be Used In Construction Bridge in Willow Creek Twp.

The matter of allocating the sum of $3,607.08 representing 15-D refund money due Lee county from the state, was disposed of in short order at a brief special session of the county board of supervisors this morning at the court house. The amount had been originally allocated toward the construction of a new bridge across Green river at Rockyford corners west of Amboy, but by action of the county board this morning, was diverted to use in the construction of the Thompson bridge in Willow Creek township north of Scarborough.

The supervisors discussed the plan for constructing the Rockyford bridge were not in accord with the plans as submitted by the state department. County Superintendent of Highways Fred W. Leake told the board of the deplorable condition of some of the bridges of the county which were constructed before the advent of the automobiles, motor trucks and tractor-propelled farm machinery. He repeated his threat to close some of the worst structures unless repairs are made or new bridges constructed as a safeguard against damage action.

Avery Gives Opinion.
The veteran representative from May township, William Avery, member of the road and bridge committee, expressed his opinion of the proposed plans for the Rockyford bridge briefly and forcibly.

"The present bridge is not wide enough to haul a load of hay," he told the board members. Then he added that he considered the lowest bid received by the road and bridge committee much higher than necessary and the plans submitted by the state as not being proper. The present bridge is not wide enough with its ten foot roadway and a 20 foot roadway is too wide for a structure over which very few cars pass, and is out of reason, he stated. The May supervisor favored a 16 foot width sufficient for any travel for years to come.

Superintendent Leake told the board that the state highway department under its present safety program, would not permit bridges to be constructed on a state aid system road under 20 foot in width. In response to questions by supervisors, he stated his personal opinion that a 16 foot structure would suffice and would lessen the expense of construction. He also stated that two 45 foot spans had been recommended and the state department had drafted plans for two 50-foot spans.

After the discussion, Assistant Supervisor Garrison offered a motion whereby the board rescinded their action of the meeting last April in appropriating the 15-D refund money to the Rockyford site. With the unanimous approval of the board on this action, the road and bridge committee then presented a resolution which provided that the refund amount, together with an appropriation of $2,000 be used in the construction of the Thompson bridge in Willow Creek township. The resolution was unanimously adopted by the board members, who then adjourned to meet again July 10.

Peoria Judge Refuses to Recognize Two Chicago Attorneys as Counsel for Alleged Ravisher and Slayer

Peoria, Ill., June 28—(AP)—Attorneys Edward S. Herdlicka and Frank Sharp of Chicago were temporarily ousted today from the case of Gerald Thompson, 25-year-old alleged ravisher and slayer of Mildred Hallmark, 19, when Circuit Judge Henry J. Ingram refused to recognize them as counsel for the prisoner. Thompson's trial has been set for July 22.

After a conference with the two lawyers in the office of E. V. Champion, Peoria county state's attorney, Judge Ingram said he was not convinced they were retained by anybody and that until they

WITHDRAWAL OF TROOPS MISTAKE

Disorders Broke Out Immediately in Missouri Lead Mine Strike

Joplin, Mo., June 28.—(AP)—Striking lead and zinc field miners, reported armed with guns, clubs and rocks, attacked other miners headed for work today, 24 hours after the last of the National Guardsmen sent to the field a month ago were withdrawn.

Half a hundred workers, who returned to their jobs when operators began reopening after a strike called by the international union May 9 seeking recognition and better working conditions were reported congregated at a house near the Kansas-Missouri state line, armed, and ready to battle the strikers.

Several workers were badly beaten with rocks, cars were overturned and wrecked and shots were fired at cars which refused to stop.

The strikers were strung out in groups for about two miles on the three principal highways leading from Joplin into Kansas.

The outbreak was believed to have been incited by the announced intention to open the Galena, Kas., smelter of the Eagle Picher Lead Company today. Galena is near Joplin.

ACQUAINTANCE SLAIN LAWYER BEING SOUGHT

Robbery Only Theory in Murder Nephew Chief Justice

Detroit, June 28.—(AP)—Police issued a statewide order today to search for Lee Ferris, known to have been an acquaintance of Howard Carter Dickinson, New York attorney found slain in a Detroit park yesterday. The police said that Ferris checked out of a Detroit hotel at 11 A. M. yesterday and has been missing since.

Police officials refused to say in what connection they were searching for Ferris.

A detail of detectives was assigned to trace the movements of Dickinson, 52-year-old attorney, a nephew of Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes, in an effort to determine where he went after he ate a hurried dinner Wednesday night at his hotel and then departed.

With Two Companions
Carl C. Oglesbee, Dearborn councilman and proprietor of a restaurant, identified Dickinson's body today as that of a man who visited his bar about 1 A. M. Thursday morning with two companions.

Oglesbee and his bartender, Richard Watson, both viewed the body. Watson also identified Dickinson as the customer.

"One of the men was very big. He probably weighed 250 pounds. The other was small," Oglesbee said of the two other men.

"Dickinson," Watson said, "asked for half a shot" of the best whiskey he had. I served it to him. The other men had beer."

Oglesbee said Dickinson paid for the drinks, taking a bill from a large roll. He said they left as soon as they had finished their drinks.

Body Dumped on Road
Dickinson's body, pierced by two bullets, was found early yesterday, dumped beside a driveway in Rouge Park. Police, in the absence of definite clues, cling to the theory that the New York lawyer was the victim of a "ride" and was killed for the large sum of money he is believed to have been carrying.

Police would not say why the automobile was sought or what possible part it played in the investigation. It was learned, however, that police aid in Michigan, Ohio and New York had been sought in locating the vehicle.

Coat Two Miles Away
Dr. Robert Kallman, Wayne county medical examiner, said he believed Dickinson was killed by a person, or persons, who took extreme precautions to make sure Dickinson died instantly. The attorney's suit coat, his hotel key in the pocket, was found on the outskirts of the city two miles from Rouge Park. There was a hole in the left shoulder and officers said they believe it was made by one of the two bullets which caused the death. The other struck Dickinson in the head precipitating a hemorrhage which was the cause of death.

Chief of Detectives Fred W. Fram admitted officers are seeking a woman who left Dickinson's brief case in the checkroom of Dickinson's hotel, 10 hours after the discovery of the body. Publicly, however, officers attached little importance to this angle of the case.

NON-GOLD SUIT BILL IS READY

Introduced in House by Banking Chairman This Morning

Washington, June 28.—(AP)—An administration bill to deny holders of government securities the right to claim damages in court actions as a result of dollar devaluation was introduced today by Chairman Steagall of the house banking committee.

The legislation was requested yesterday by President Roosevelt in a special message to congress.

Steagall said the measure would be taken up by the banking committee Monday and reported to the house "after possibly a couple of days hearings."

"There won't be any trouble in the committee or house either, I'm sure," he added.

His bill would take from holders of bonds, notes, certificates of indebtedness, treasury bills, and other government securities which contain the "gold clause" the privilege of suing the government on the ground that devaluation of the gold dollar had harmed them.

It also would give holders of securities which contain the gold clause until September 1, 1935, to exchange them for other securities which do not have the gold clause.

The gold clause is a promise to pay out 544 434 345—36

Colonists Revolt

Palmer, Alaska, June 28.—(AP)—A mad dog scare and a shortage of reading matter shared the attention of the Matanuska colonists today as they awaited the arrival of Eugene Carr, "trouble shooter" for the Federal relief administration.

Carr was sent here after nearly 50 of the former mid-westerners had complained to Washington about conditions in the colony. Six of the 200 families settled here by the government signed up to return to the states yesterday and began selling their household goods.

SOUGHT WOMAN PHONES POLICE

Rock Island Teacher Admits Striking Little Girl With Auto

Mrs. Mildred Carney, Rock Island school teacher, telephoned Chief of Police J. D. Van Bibber from Woodstock last night at 10 o'clock, stating that she was the driver of the car which struck seven-year-old Cecilia Giese on Everett street, west of Peoria avenue Wednesday afternoon. Chief Van Bibber this morning secured a warrant before Justice Grover Gehant charging Mrs. Carney with leaving the scene of an accident and failing to report the accident. It was expected that upon her arrival here this afternoon that the hearing would be continued pending the outcome of the child's injuries.

Captain Dennis Bennett of the Rock Island police department telephoned Chief Van Bibber earlier last evening, stating that Mrs. Carney was visiting with her brother-in-law, Lester Edinger, former sheriff and present county treasurer at Woodstock. The Dixon chief immediately called the Edinger residence and located the woman, who admitted having struck the Giese girl, adding that she was unable to locate the police station after leaving the scene of the accident and continued on to Woodstock.

Car Was Damaged
The Rock Island school teacher's car was damaged, she told Chief Van Bibber, one headlight being broken and the front of the radiator damaged. Mrs. Carney told Chief Van Bibber that she would come to Dixon as soon as her damaged car was repaired and her brother-in-law, assured the chief that he would accompany his sister-in-law to Dixon probably this afternoon.

Reports from the hospital today were to the effect that the victim of the accident was somewhat improved and there was slight possibility that the injured limbs would have to be amputated.

$1,391,650 is Asked for Savanna's Depot

Washington, June 28.—(AP)—Construction of new magazines at the Savanna, Ill., ordnance depot and railroad tracks to the ordnance area would consume the bulk of the $1,391,000 requested by the army from work relief funds for construction work at the depot.

An itemized study of the army applications shows that one requesting $812,000 calls for expenditure of $806,000 for magazines and $6,000 for telephone construction. The other for $580,650 calls for 500,000 for railroad tracks to the magazine area, $42,000 for roads, $10,550 for fencing and $28,100 for general repairs to the buildings.

Your evening Telegraph carrier boy will call upon you tomorrow for the regular weekly collection. Be kind enough to have the money ready. There are 35 carriers who must cover their routes in haste. Please assist them.

Record Breakers in Air; Seek New Mark

Meridian, Miss., June 28—(AP)—
The record breaking plane of Fred and Al Keys roared in circles over Meridian today, giving no indication of descending with its new aerial endurance mark.
"We are going to keep her in the air just as long as she keeps perk-ing," said Fred.

The brothers shattered the old endurance record of 553 hours 41 minutes and 30 seconds set by John and Kenneth Hunter at Chicago in 1930, at 3:13 1-2 P. M. (CST) yesterday.

The fliers, tired, weary and aching after 24 days aloft in the close quarters of their plane, the Ole Miss, were cheered with the assurance of a group of newspaper publishers that they will be given $100 for each day they remain in the air past the former record time.

An extensive and intensified search is being made at home and abroad for plants that will help control soil erosion.

Mrs. Elizabeth Carmichael With-

Carmichael declined to discuss the claim publicly, or comment on puboffer no clue today to the slaying in Detroit of Howard Carter Dick-

"We simply can't figure it out," said Dickinson's secretary, Miss Phyllis Kennedy, who was at the

"O. K., Warden?" he asked Lewis

Mrs. Coo had died, nodded and Steel-nerved, the black haired Scarniel put the leather strap at

FEELING SMALL

By Dr. Joseph Fort Newton
SOME folks make us feel small when they come near. By their haughtiness they humiliate us. They are so sure, so superior, so self-assured that they reduce us to a heap of white ashes.

They are so important, in their estimate, that one feels like apologizing for existing at all. They are satisfied with themselves—what they have is the best. Their smile never comes off.

Other folk, so far from making us feel small, cheer us up, life us up, and make us feel that we have a right to a place in the sun. They do not flatter, much less condescend—they stimulate us.

In fact, they really listen for an answer when they ask a question, and actually want to know what we think about it. They do not cut off our halting speech, like the self-obsessed know-it-all.

Such people are a joy, because they are truly human as well as great. They do not make us want to evaporate they touch our hearts and evoke the hidden greatness that is in every soul.

We endure the egotist as best we can. We enjoy the natural, lovable person who shares his best with us, while appealing to the best in us. No truly great man ever makes us feel small.

But what are we to do when we make ourselves feel small? How can we handle a sensitive, shrinking spirit which makes us shrink up and want to crawl into a hole and hide, even from ourselves?

Often I have a vague fear, writes a reader, "that if I am not careful, some day on a street-car someone will sit down on me, because he has not noticed that I am there. It is hard to imagine myself as more than a walking hole in space someone might bump into."

It makes one think of the cake which Alice ate in Wonderland, which made her swell up, twice her size. Only my reader got hold of the cake which makes her shrink up, almost to the vanishing point.

In short, it is inverted egotism, and if it becomes morbid it will make her as miserable as the egotist makes all of us.

Marriage of Sept. 23, 1933 Revealed

147 Children Were Examined at Dixon Summer's Round-Up

It is interesting to know that the Summer Health Roundup, sponsored by the North and South Central Parent-Teachers associations recently, in which they were ably assisted by the other Dixon schools, resulted in the examination of 147 children of kindergarten and first grade age. The purpose of the roundup was to thoroughly examine the youngsters to check health defects, and then have these revealed defects remedied so that the children will be physically prepared for school in the fall.

Miss Nichols, the state nurse from DeKalb, considers Dixon well launched in the summer roundup, and a condensed report of the movement here will be read in the fall before a meeting of the Dixon Medical Association with the permission of its members.

Of the 147 children examined but 20 had been immunized for diphtheria and only 14 had been vaccinated for smallpox. The state board of health urges parents to have their children immunized and vaccinated before permitting them to enter the public schools.

Of the group examined here there are at least 15 in need of immediate medical and dental attention. Their families are on relief so an appeal is being made for help, and anyone interested in contributing to these cases is asked to confer with Mrs. H. H. Roberts, the school nurse.

Parents who have had corrections made may return their signed "Parents Record" cards to any member of the visiting committee or to any of the following chairmen: Mesdames J. B. Woodworth, G. A. Rhoades, H. C. Manthey, Harold Esby, Wendall Drummons, Robert E. Shaw.

Last Meeting Dixon Woman's Club Held

The Dixon's Woman's club held their last meeting of the year in the home of Mrs. George B. Shaw, Wednesday afternoon, June 26th. There was a good attendance.

The meeting was in charge of the retiring president, Mrs. H. A. White. The officers and chairmen of the various committees gave their annual reports. The club has been very active during the past year. Besides the regular meetings, the Literature department has had several Book Talks which were open to the public. The Art Department also had a study group. The Citizenship department sponsored an all day institute. They also held a Forum which was conducted by B. J. Frazier.

Following these reports, Mrs. White turned the meeting over to the new president, Mrs. A. C. Bowers. Mrs. Bowers then presented Mrs. White with a gift from the board expressing their esteem of the retiring president.

Mrs. Bowers called on her committee chairmen to give some of their dreams for the coming year. Refreshments were served by the committee Mesdames Prince, Utley, McGinnis, Pitcher, Murray, Shaw, King, Wadsworth, Graham and Miss Eustace.

Caution in Adding Fruit Baby's Diet

(By Olive Roberts Barton.)

About this time of year mothers are wondering what fruits may be given young children safely. Should they be raw or cooked; canned or prepared at home? How much is plenty? When are fruits dangerous? And so on.

Little babies (under six months) had better stick to orange juice—or tomato juice if that agrees with them better. The time for stepping out a bit regarding fruit diet is usually at about six months. Then it is the good old apple and the precious prune that come along to brighten life.

Both must be cooked thoroughly and with very little sugar. They should be strained, and the first dose is one teaspoon or less. Once a day is enough. After a few days increase the amount slightly if the fruit agrees with him.

Give It at Noon Feeding

We are, of course, talking about a well child. No fooling with new foods when he is ill. If one of the other and either apple pulp or prune pulp physic the baby too much, stop it. Or reduce the amount. If he cannot take care of it at all, wait until he is older. Around his near-noon feeding is the best time to give it. If all goes well he can be having as much as two or three tablespoons of the juice by the time he is seven or eight months old.

This diet is not usually varied much, except under specific order, until the baby is a year old. A baby gets into second grade. A baby specialist tells me that he recommends cooked apples, peaches, pears and even sweet cherries or plums.

Sour Fruits Best Left Alone

Any fruit that is sour and requires too much sugar is bad. Rhubarb, for instance, he seldom suggests on that account. He says that dried fruit is good, too. Skins are best removed; then crush the fruit finely or strain it. Two or three tablespoons may be given with the supper at five o'clock. He also varies this with a bit of fresh banana, mashed of course. A child his age will bolt things whole and that is never good for him.

Raw fruit is allowed most babies at a year and a half if they are well and other matters are right, such as weather, and other diet changes are not impending. As usual it must be started in very small amounts and must be crushed. It can be given alternately with the cooked fruit, if desired. Begin with a tablespoonful of the raw fruit and gradually increase. Eliminate skins and seeds. To the list of fruits used formerly, the specialist now adds grapes, which must be seeded, skinned and crushed. If it tends to stimulate the bowels too much give up all raw fruit until later.

Be Sure Fruit Is Ripe

At three years cooked or raw fruit may be given up to five tablespoons. Pineapple juice is all right, but the pulp is too fibrous. You may add to the fruit diet now, grapefruit-juice, and apricots. But all and any fruit must be ripe and sweet. The things to avoid for the young child of this age are berries and melons, although red raspberries may be cooked and strained. Never use spice in cooked fruit.

Canned fruit is all right naturally, but it contains a good bit of sugar for the very young child, unless specially prepared for babies.

Older children can take care of a great variety of fruit. But in hot weather watch that they don't stuff on it when they are too hot, and perhaps it is too green. Remember what happened to Johnny Jones and his sister Sue.

FROM NOW ON

Australia, which has had pension systems in operation some time, has age pension beneficiaries numbering 275 in each 10,000 inhabitants. If Illinois doesn't have that proportion now, it soon will have. Such rolls grow rather than diminish.

At that rate, age pensions will cost the people of Illinois 40 million dollars a year. It doesn't make any difference how you figure it, the cost comes out of the people and in large part from the land and the tillers of it. According to machinery now in the making the federal government, which is us, contributes $15 a month for each person, and the state will be obligated to the same amount. So far as Illinois is concerned, the part the government pays does not mean that Illinois will pay any less. When the government pays, Illinois pays more than it would pay if it financed its own enterprises and charities. When the government pays, Illinois not only pays her own, but pays that part which would be paid by such states as Arizona, New Mexico, Idaho, the Dakotas, and perhaps some southern states.

In round figures the pension systems now being evolved will cost the people of Illinois 40 millions of dollars, not as we spent 60 millions on the first hard road program, but 40 millions of dollars every year—from now on.

WHY IS ROWING DEAD?

Why has rowing been dropped from the field of sport?

The president of the United States has been a spectator at the rowing contest in which his son participated as a Harvard student. Eastern universities continue a lively interest in the sport.

Time was when midwestern cities situated along the larger streams had their competing rowing crews and rowing regattas. There are fads in sports which fade and revive, but a third of a century has rolled around since there has been any active interest in rowing on the Rock river.

News from Springfield of late reports that "Mayor Kelly sat on the rostrum," with the presiding officer while certain legislation in which he is interested passed the house in which it was pending. In such position the mayor takes on the characteristics of a ringmaster making the animals jump through the hoops. Many of the legislators from Chicago are holding appointive public offices or are employed by public officials. They make their living on those jobs. Their jobs depend on how they perform in the legislature for the bosses in Chicago. It is a fine system and it was given us by the party of reform.

If you desire to know the size of the fortunes President Roosevelt refers to when he talks of dividing them up by means of taxation, ascertain the amount of the estate of his father and mother and you may estimate that the flattening out process does not come within that range.

Grover Cleveland contributed to political language the assertion that he had congress on his hands. The present congress is beginning to be weary from the fact that it has a president on its hands.

The fellow who wouldn't think of asking a merchant to throw in a pair of socks when he buys a pair of shoes, has no compunction about asking the newspaper for a lot of free advertising. Roy Powell of the Holt Rustler points out.

A New York banker says he would like to run a newspaper for a week. And think what an editor could do with a bank in one day.

I am not sure that hell hereafter is a certainty, while I am quite sure that it can be a certainty in this life.—Rafael Sabatini.

DAILY HEALTH

SNAKES

Forty years ago the government printing office issued a report on the poisonous snakes of North America.

The number of snakes listed is astonishingly large. Included are the coral snakes, the pit vipers, under which are listed the copperhead, the water moccasin, the Massasauga, the ground rattlesnake, the dog-faced rattlesnake and 12 other types of rattlesnakes.

Since this report was published, the poisonous snake population of America has diminished appreciably, yet snake bites are not entirely uncommon today, and those who wander about in mountainous territories and in regions where snakes are known to be present should be prepared for the emergency.

One of the best precautions is wearing high boots or leather puttees. The largest number of snake bites are inflicted upon the lower extremities, and a good layer of leather between the snake fangs and the skin forms a first-class protective.

When a snake bite has been inflicted, we must aim to keep the venom from spreading. We achieve this in part by placing a tourniquet above the region of the bite; by cutting into the site of the bite to encourage free bleeding, and by washing out the wound with a solution of potassium permanganate or other strong oxidizing agent.

And most important of all, particularly in the instance of highly poisonous snakes, we should administer as promptly as possible a suitable dose of anti-venom.

There are on the market entirely reliable snake bite packets which are provided with all the essentials necessary for such an emergency. Some of the snake venom sera are what we call polyvalent—that is, they are protective against the venom of several snakes. Others are specific for one type of snake only.

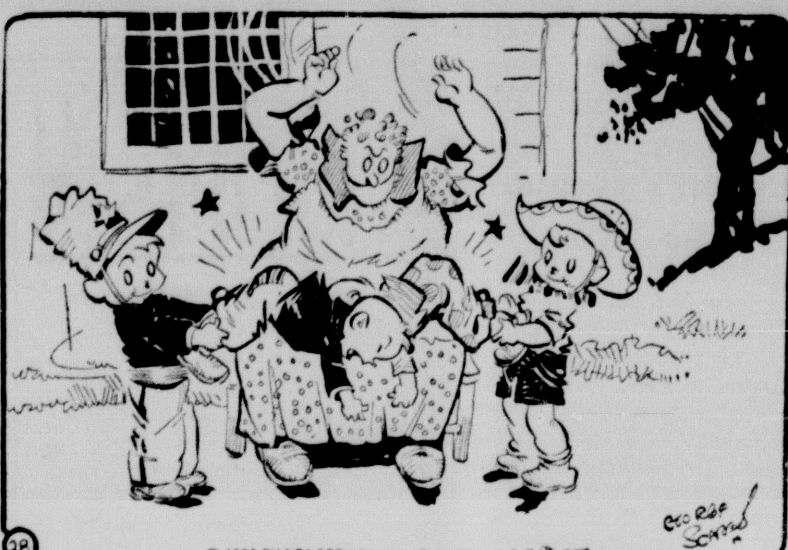

Your physician or your druggist will inform you what poisonous snakes, if any, abound in the region, and also what type of venom serum you will want to carry with you.

Tomorrow—Some Encouragement

THE TWYMILES

Story by HAL COCHRAN

Pictures by GEORGE SCARBO

(READ THE STORY THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

Poor Rip was taken by surprise. He wiped the water from his eyes and shouted, "Catch those Trouble Tots. They've played another trick. My clothing, now, is soaking wet. Oh, I will catch a cold, I'll bet. I guess I'll have to thrash the tots. Someone get me a stick."

"The spanking need not come from you. The best thing, sir, for you to do is change your clothes," cried Goidy. "Run into your house, right now!"

"We'll chase the Trouble Tots and they'll be sorry they began to play. It seems whenever they're around, they always start a row."

The Trouble Tots, just full of glee, were hiding, now, behind a tree. Rip shouted, "I will follow Dotty's plan. I think it's smart. Just catch the tots and bring them in. My share of fun, then, will begin. I'll get my wife to punish them real well, ere they depart."

"Now, start the chase and hurry back." Then Rip went right into his hack. Brave Scouty started running and the rest trailed long behind.

He shouted to the tots, "We'll get you both. Oh my, but you'll regret the trick you've played. It isn't nice to do such things, you'll find."

Both of the tots began to yell. Cried Coppy, "Oh, you may as well give up and take your medicine." Then both the tots stood still. The Tines grabbed them, holding tight. Rip's little home still was in sight. "Of your mean stunts," said Scouty, "our friend, Rip, has had his fill."

Just then Rip's wife came into view. "I guess I am the one to do the spanking," she exclaimed. "Eh, this time Rip's begun to snore."

She puts the tots across her knees. The Tines held them there with ease. Then came the spanking. One Tot cried, "We will be bad no more."

(The Tines bid the Van Winkles goodbye in the next story.)

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

He that speaketh flattery to his friends, even the eyes of his children shall fail.—Job 17:5.

Of all wild beasts preserve me from a tyrant and of all tame, from a flatterer.—Ben Jonson.

An English woman owns a cat, which measures 37 inches from nose to tail, 33 inches around the middle, 14 inches around the shoulders, and weighs 35 pounds. A pound of meat and a quart of milk are its daily rations.

After you have that auto accident do you not wish you had one of the Dixon Telegraph's Accident $10,000 Accident Insurance Policy. It costs but $1.40 for a year's protection.

Ginkgo trees, which have survived since the age of dinosaurs, have no close relatives in the entire vegetable kingdom.

LET US MAKE YOUR 4TH OF JULY TRIP SAFER

BEFORE you start on your holiday trip, let us completely inspect your car. There is no charge for this service and it will assure you of a safer and more enjoyable trip.

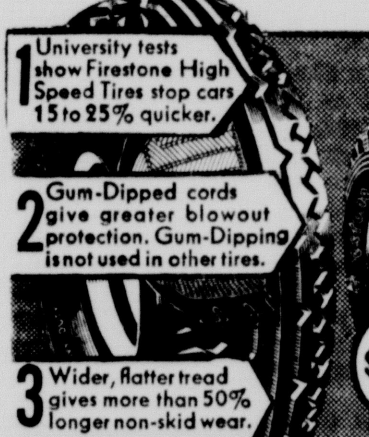

For the convenience and safety of car owners Firestone has established more than 500 Auto Supply and Service Stores throughout the country, and thousands of Firestone Dealers are also equipped with complete Auto Supplies and complete Service Departments, to test and service your tires, brakes, batteries, spark plugs, in addition to power lubrication and crank case service.

AVOID THE DANGER OF BLOWOUTS

Firestone removes the danger of blowouts by preventing their main cause—internal friction and heat. This is accomplished by Gum-Dipping.

THERE ARE THREE QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS THAT WILL SOLVE YOUR PROBLEM OF WHAT TIRES TO BUY:

1 "Will the tread give me the greatest traction and protection against skidding?"

University tests show Firestone High Speed Tires stop cars 15 to 25% quicker.

Gum-Dipped cords give greater blowout protection. Gum-Dipping is not used in other tires.

Wider, flatter tread gives more than 50% longer non-skid wear.

'100 Pct.' Nichols Renews Fight on FDIC; Deadline for Cracking Down Nears

Englewood Banker Reveals Correspondence with O'Connor

WHAT THE NEWS WAS AROUND DIXON IN YEARS GONE BY

50 YEARS AGO
Dr. George A. Bardwell passed away at his home yesterday afternoon, aged 64 years.

Solon Crowell of Oregon, a leading merchant here a third of a century ago, is in the city visiting with John L. Lord.

25 YEARS AGO
A high test thermometer placed in the sun today registered 116 degrees above zero.

Eli Rosenthal wired his refusal to become a candidate for justice of the peace of Dixon township, from Chicago today.

10 YEARS AGO
Jacob H. Egler passed away yesterday afternoon at his home 118 College avenue.

Word was received here this afternoon of the death of James E. Sterling at Aurora.

depression it has shown a modest profit each year and Nichols estimates profits this year will be about $20,000. By forcing out small and inactive accounts during the last year the number of depositors has been reduced from 16,000 to 6,000, but total deposits are as large as ever.

A year ago Nichols declined an offer of $500,000 for his controlling interest in the bank.

AMBOY NEWS

By Frances Lepper

Amboy—One hundred and sixty-five students in the University of Illinois College of Education made averages of 4 or better out of a possible 5, it was announced Wednesday at Champaign, by Dean T. E. Brenner. Of the 165 students, 14 made perfect 5 averages.

Marjorie Berryman, of Amboy, a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Berryman, made an average of 4 for her second semester's work, according to Dean Brenner's announcement. Miss Berryman was graduated from the College of Education last week.

E. J. Antoine has rented the south half of the building on S. Mason Avenue occupied by the Tuttle Plumbing & Heating Co. and will open a service station and used car salesroom there on July 1. Gasoline and oil will be sold and reconditioned cars will be displayed and sold.

Francis Scott, who is studying embalming and funeral directing at the Worsham School of Embalming in Chicago, will take the state examination July 8 and 9. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Scott of this city and has already served his apprenticeship here under the late F. C. Vaughan.

Thirty-two children are enrolled in the Daily Vacation Bible School at the Methodist church, which convened Monday morning for one week. There are various classes for beginners, primary, junior and intermediate groups.

Miss Lucille Barth, Mrs. E. M. Edwards and Miss Dorothy Long are the directors and they are assisted by Miss Ruth Zeiler and Winston Edwards. On Friday a picnic for all the children enrolled will be held at the Green River Park, the regular Sunday School picnic having been postponed indefinitely.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Kilmer entered Yellowstone Park early last week for a four day tour. Mr. and Mrs. Kilmer were members of a group of two hundred Middle Westerners who made the trip by special train. From Yellowstone Park the party went to Pike's Peak in Colorado. The trip was sponsored by WLS radio station of Chicago. They returned home Monday evening from their ten day trip and report a wonderful trip, in fact Mr. Kilmer says, "Go out there, folks, don't miss it!" Enroute home they stopped in Chicago to visit Mrs. L. S. Staup, former Amboy resident.

O'Connor Denies Threat

O'Connor in his letter to Nichols denied any intention to threaten the Englewood banker by saying that his previous communication had been addressed to other bankers as well as Nichols.

"It would seem," Nichols said, "that you are the only banker who regards a circular letter as a threatening communication."

Earlier Nichols had written O'Connor:

"Stop shadow boxing and get this case before the Supreme Court. I'll wager it will pluck your FDIC bill so close that in comparison Hugh Johnson's defeated blue eagle will look as if it were all dressed up in a raccoon coat."

The First National Bank of Englewood has refused to accept any new deposits for more than a year and yet its total deposits are still approximately at the six and a half million mark, where they have been most of the time during the last six years.

Writes Off Reserve Stock
Nichols wrote down his $24,000 investment in stock of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago to 10 cents when President Roosevelt several months ago appointed Marriner S. Eccles governor of the Federal reserve board. A few days ago he wrote down the bank's investment in its half million dollar building to $10 on the balance sheet.

Not including either commercial loans or real estate, the bank has enough cash and government bonds to pay off all deposits in full with $300,000 to spare.

The bank has been in existence for about fifty years. During the Luther League meets on the first Thursday of each month.

News of the Churches

GOOD THOUGHTS

All persons possessing any portion of power ought to be strongly and awfully impressed with an idea that they are to account for their conduct in that trust to the one great Master, Author, and founder of society.

—Edmund Burke

Government is a trust, and officers of the government are trustees.

—Henry Clay

Government must inspire confidence not only in its ability but in its integrity.

—Herbert Hoover

The deterioration of government begins by the decay of its principles.

—Montesquieu

It is a good work and prudent, to be able to guide one man of larger, extended virtue to order well one house; but to govern a nation piously and justly, which is to say, happily, is for a spirit of the greatest size and divinest mettle.

—John Milton

The Spirit of the Lord spake by me, and his word was in my tongue. The God of Israel said, The Rock of Israel spake to me, He that ruleth over men must be just, ruling in the fear of God.

II Samuel 23

In no case can a nation rise higher than its conception of God, for that determines its conception of man. Through the ages, nations have risen and fallen as their conceptions of God became clearer or grew dim. When good is a people's idea of God, and in proportion as good is understood as an unselfish and wholly desirable condition, that people's government must necessarily express its nation's concepts.

PALE, YELLOW COMPLEXION INDICATES AN UNHEALTHY CONDITION OF YOUR LIVER

Modern Science Brings Us A Scientific Medicine, Called Indo-Vin, Which Cleanses Old Bile From The Liver, Stimulates Flow Of Gastric Juices In The Stomach And Thus Beautifies Our Skin.

Building Of New Blood Corpuscles Purifies Blood Stream And Puts Glow Of Health In Cheeks.

A new, natural way of cleansing the system of impurities has brought peach-like, healthy complexions to thousands of women all over America. And it is found that yeast tonics and cure-alls are passing, as science has brought us a new mixture of medicinal plant juices, called Indo-Vin, which goes to the very source of most skin troubles. This new medicine has a great action upon the four important organs of digestion and elimination, thus ridding the body of poisons that lower vitality and drain the color from the cheeks. Experience shows that after taking this new, scientific medicine just three days, sufferers feel and look like new. Original Indo-Vin people, years younger than their real age. Indo-Vin is now being introduced here in Dixon by the Indo-Vin Man in person at the Ford-Hopkins Drug Store.

WHAT IT WILL DO

Taken shortly after meals, Indo-Vin mixes with the food in one's stomach, aiding nature and throwing off poisons that foster stomach troubles, and permitting the liver to function properly. It helps bring out impurities which cause half-sick, tired feelings and low energy. It will relieve gas (frequently from the first dose) which may have been inside of your stomach for a long time, contaminating your blood and inner organs. By its natural cleansing action, Indo-Vin often puts a stop to the skin eruptions that are caused by impurities and wipe away the sallowness or "muddy" of practical Christian problems and life stories of the great missionaries of the Kingdom of God.

7:30 P. M. Song request hour, led by Richard Weyant. Be sure to hand in your request for special numbers at the morning service. The song and praise service is always a spiritual treat at Bethel church.

The evangelistic message following will be on "Abel, the Man who Believed God." A discussion of the real difference between Cain and Abel.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

Gilbert Stansell, Pastor

Public worship and sermon by the pastor at 8:30. This early hour during the summer months is proving very satisfactory. The choir will sing "Holy Art Thou" by Handel. The pastor will speak on the subject, "The People and Authority." This will be an Independence Day sermon, and everyone is invited.

The church school will open at 9:45 and all are invited.

Bishop Ernest Lynn Waldorf of Chicago will speak at Franklin Grove at 3:00 in the afternoon. A huge crowd is expected and all are invited. The management is asking that one hundred filled cars come from Dixon, and a proportional number from other communities in driving distance.

Epworth League at 6:30 and Paul Fenton will lead. He is inviting all young people to be present and help in the discussion, especially those who were in attendance upon the Taylor quartet meetings.

The first of the Union Sunday evening services will be conducted in this church at 7:30, and the Rev. James Barnett will preach. All the people of the six churches cooperating are earnestly invited, as well as all others. During the summer other pastors will preach.

Dr. Frank Young, Dr. Lloyd Walter, Rev. L. E. Conner, Father Burke and Dr. Gilbert Stansell. In addition to these visiting preachers will be heard.

complexion that is due to sluggish liver, and will put the ROSY GLOW OF HEALTH into your cheeks. Physicians will tell you that your liver bile must flow freely or your food won't digest. It just decays in the bowels and you have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul. Skin often breaks out in blemishes, your head aches and your whole system is poisoned. But Indo-Vin will make your liver more active, and clear away the old bile, thus relieving spells of biliousness and sick headaches. This is no mere pill, tablet or salt, and not a powder, syrup or capsule, and it does not contain alcohol or a single habit-forming drug, but it is a scientific LIQUID mixture from 22 medicinal plants, all blended into one remarkable compound. It will not make you sick or nauseate you like calomel or ordinary liver medicines. It contains a combination of ingredients not found in any other known formula, and while it is being introduced in Dixon every suffering person can take it at the small cost of only a few cents a day. So if liver or bowel affliction or stomach distress is sapping your vitality, it would certainly be a mistake not to try it. The Indo-Vin Man is now at the Ford-Hopkins Drug Store here in Dixon, daily meeting the public and introducing and explaining this new mixture of Nature's Medicines. ALL-STARS TO HOLD ANNUAL GAME JULY 8

Line-ups Picked By Both Forces For Contest

Chicago, June 28—(AP)—After almost as many sleepless nights as he spent last fall in worrying over his battle plans for the world series, Manager Mickey Cochrane of Detroit today announced his American League lineup of 20 players for the third All-Star game against the National League forces at Cleveland, July 8.

Every club in the circuit was represented in the lineup selected by Cochrane with the aid of the seven other managers in the league, the New York Yankees and Detroit leading with four stars apiece. Philadelphia and Boston each placed three, Cleveland Washington two each, and the St. Louis Browns and Chicago White Sox each one. The lineup consists of five pitchers, two southpaws in Lefty Gomez of the Yanks and the veteran Bob Grove of the Red Sox; three catchers, six infielders and six outfielders.

Last Minute Change
The lineup, altered at the last minute because of the injury to outfielder Earl Averill of Cleveland, batting star of last year's American League triumph, follows:

Pitchers—Mel Harder, Cleveland; Robert Grove, Boston; Vernon Gomez, New York; School Boy Rowe and Tommy Bridges, Detroit.

Catchers—Cochrane, Detroit; Bill Dickey, New York, and Rick Ferrell, Boston.

Infielders—Lou Gehrig, New York; Charles Gehringer, Detroit; Joe Cronin, Boston; Buddy Myer, Washington; Jimmie Foxx, Philadelphia, and Oswald Bluege, Washington.

Outfielders—Zeb Johnson, Philadelphia; Al Simmons, Chicago; Joe Vosmik, Cleveland; Roger Cramer, Philadelphia; Ben Chapman, New York, and Sam West, St. Louis.

Batting practice battery—Dave Keefe, Philadelphia, pitcher; Ralph Perkins, Detroit, catcher.

Trainer—Dennis Carroll, Detroit.
Coaches—Rogers Hornsby, St. Louis; Del Baker, Detroit.

Ten Played Last Year
Ten of the 20 saw action in last year's game—Gehringer, Harder, Chapman, Gehrig, Foxx, Simmons, Cronin, Dickey, Gomez and West.

Missing from that lineup were Charley Ruffing, Babe Ruth, and Averill. Not an out and out rookie was included.

Although Cochrane said it was too early to figure up his starting lineup, the general opinion around American League headquarters today was Bridges probably would start on the mound, with Harder ready to step in.

Dickey was regarded as almost a sure starter at the catching position with Gehrig at first, Gehringer at second, Cronin at shortstop and Foxx on third. The best guess on the starting outfield seemed to be Johnson, left Simmons, center, and Vosmik, right, with West replacing Johnson should the American League get a lead and require and air tight defense.

All Happy Five Years After Baby Mixup

Five years have passed since the Bambergers and the Watkins' went through agonizing weeks of doubt as to "who had whose baby." The two baby boys were born in a Chicago hospital at almost the same time. Mixed identification tags caused all the furor. Today neither the Bambergers nor the Watkins' have any doubt that they are rearing their own flesh and blood. At top are the William Watkins', left, and the Charles Bambergers, right, as they stood in the hospital in 1929 trying to decide which baby was which. Below, left, is Charles Evans Watkins, and at right is George Edward Bamberger, as the two boys, both healthy and strong, approached their fifth birthday. Time has brought out family resemblances, confirming the correctness of the final decision better than mother instinct or careful scientific examination could do when the controversy was at full heat five years ago. Improved means of marking and identifying babies soon after birth have been adopted all over the country as a result of the famous case.

members of the pace-setting New York Giants and a like number of the world champion St. Louis Cardinals are among the 20 players drafted for the National League team to meet the pick of the American League in the annual all-star game at Cleveland, July 8.

The National League squad follows:

First base—Bill Terry, Giants and Jim Collins, Cardinals.

Second base—Frank Frisch, Cardinals and Billy Herman, Cubs.

Third base—Pepper Martin, Cardinals.

Shortstop—Floyd (Arky) Vaughan, Pirates.

Utility infielder—Burgess Whitehead, Cardinals.

Outfielders—Joe Medwick, Cardinals; Wally Berger, Braves; Paul Waner, Pirates; Mel Ott and Joe Moore, Giants.

Catchers—Jimmy Wilson, Philadelphia; Gabby Hartnett, Cubs and Gus Mancuso, Giants.

Pitchers—Carl Hubbell and Hal Schumacher, Giants; Dizzy Dean, Cardinals; Paul Derringer, Reds and Van Mungo, Dodgers.

Coaches—Charlie Dresen, manager of the Reds and Charlie Grimm, manager of the Cubs.

Trainer—Doc Weaver, Cardinals.

Several of the higher peaks of the Great Smoky mountains are covered with heavy, meadow-like grass.

There are extensive deposits of gold in Peru that have not been mined because of their remote location and lack of transportation.

The first Fresnel lens for light-houses was installed in the beacon at Cape Henry, Va., in 1841.

Baby Senator's Party Boss

Capital society acquired another beauty—as well as the youngest senatorial hostess—as Rush D. Holt of West Virginia attained senatorial status. She is Jane Holt, 21-year-old sister of the baby senator, who has moved to Washington to supervise his home and arrange those social parties so important in politics.

When These Clash—Look Out!

Zanuck, Schenck, Sheehan
Recent merger of the Twentieth Century and Fox studios brings together three fiery temperaments that are bound to cause an explosion. Winfield Sheehan, who has ruled the Fox empire for the last ten years, now faces Joseph M. Schenck and Darryl Zanuck of Twentieth Century. It's the latter two against Sheehan, in the battle for supremacy in the new combination, and it may be a tough and costly battle.

The SHOT THAT FIRED THE WORLD

ON June 28, 1914, the Archduke Francis Ferdinand, heir apparent to the throne of Austria-Hungary, and his consort, were riding in their open carriage through the streets of Sarajevo when a Serbian student dashed toward them and shot both dead. That shot started the World War, which even today has not been settled to the satisfaction of the nations that became embroiled in it. As a result of that assassination, more than 4,500,000 men were killed and more than 21,000,000 were injured.

In 1917, Bosnia-Herzegovina, as part of Austria-Hungary, issued a set of three stamps commemorating the assassination of the archduke and archduchess. One illustrated a memorial church that was to be built at Sarajevo, another showed a portrait of the archduke and the third had portraits of the royal couple.

DIDRIKSON IS NEARING GOLF HONORS TODAY

Chicago, June 28—(AP)—A pair of seasoned campaigners, Mrs. Opal S. Hill of Kansas City, and Mrs. S. L. Heinhardt of Chicago, were the amateur Division's last hopes today to keep Helen Hicks and Babe Didrikson from taking over the finals of the women's Western Open golf tournament.

Miss Hicks, the country's number one business woman golfer, conquered Mrs. H. Austin Pardue of Chicago, 4 and 2, yesterday, but the Babe, also a golfer for profit, was put to a lot of trouble before overcoming the 17-year-old daughter of a suburban truck farmer, Josephine Souche, one up, in 19 holes.

Mrs. Hill, a dangerous threat in any woman's tournament, defeated Phyllis Buchanan of Denver, 2 and 1, while Mrs. Rosenthal's margin over another youngster, 18-year-old Ella Mae Williams, daughter of Eddie Williams, Chicago professional, was 3 and 1.

Londos Beaten By O'Mahoney Loses Crown

Boston, June 28—(AP)—Dan O'Mahoney, a young giant from County Cork, who marched in the ranks of the Irish Free State Army only seven months ago, paraded today at the head of the heavyweight wrestling division.

The Irish grappler last night stripped Jimmy Londos, the Greek Adonis of his title before a crowd of 30,000.

The 22-year-old, 224 pound Celt who had won his previous 58 American matches, ended a one-fall match by pinning Londos' shoulders with a flying body scissors after an hour and 16 minutes.

Londos, whose title claims were recognized in 38 states, not including Massachusetts, gave himself a championship billing.

Evansville, June 28—(AP)—A brother act—Russell and George Ball of El Paso, Tex., and Northwestern University—carried the banner for the lower ranking element today against the seeded stars in the quarter-finals of the national intercollegiate singles tennis title tournament.

Outside of the Texas youngsters, the round of eight was composed of seeded players, including the "big three" of Wilbur Hoss, Rice Institute; big Bill Reese of Georgia Tech and Ernest Sutter of Tulane. The other survivors were Paul Guldorf of Dartmouth, Bill Schommer of Minnesota, and Leonard Patterson of California Tech.

Unfortunately for the Ball Brothers, there was a chance for only one of them to reach the finals. They are in the same bracket and the best they could hope for was a family meeting in the semi-finals.

"Gabby" Can "Gab" More Than Ever; Is Daddy Again

Chicago, June 28—(AP)—Charles "Gabby" Hartnett, veteran catcher for the Chicago National League baseball team, and Mrs. Hartnett became the parents of a daughter, their second child, today.

The baby, born at St. Francis hospital in Evanston will be named Sheila Ann. The child weighed 8 1/2 pounds. Both mother and daughter were reported doing well.

The Hartnett's other child is a boy.

A perfectly ventilated sickroom is a great aid to recovery.

Summer Sweethearts

BEHOLD HERE TODAY KATHARINE STRYKHURST 26 and beautiful, allows her emotions to run when she marries MICHAEL HEATHERS. A young, rich and famous Katharine's father is rich and her stepmother is snobbish.

The night following his marriage Michael is injured in a train accident and when he regains consciousness his memory is impaired. He forgets the marriage. Katharine heart-broken believes he has deserted her. She goes to New Mexico to forget. Wandering off for an early morning stroll Katharine becomes lost in the desert.

Michael arrives to explain and beg forgiveness. He hires a plane to search for Katharine. After a long hunt she is rescued.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XLIV

ZOE said, "My dear I'm terribly sorry I knew you'd have to know sooner or later, but I hoped it would be some other way—"

The marriage certificate of Michael Heather and Katharine Strykhurst lay on the table before her and Dr. Kaye. He glanced at it, glanced away.

"But I had thought," he said in a puzzled tone, "when she left I certainly thought—"

Zoe patted his hand. "I don't know what this is all about," she said. "But I'm certain Katharine never meant to hurt anyone. She must have had a very good reason for not telling us."

The lean, ascetic young doctor brushed under his recent tan. "I don't doubt it."

"You—you were," he said about her, weren't you?" Zoe asked simply. He nodded.

"I've been there, myself," he added after a moment. "I guess you know about that. Loving anyone and finding out you don't count and feeling nothing's worth while—"

"But you saved me from something terrible. I'll never forget it. That's why I wish I could tell you."

"It's all right," Dr. Kaye muttered. "It's my own fault. I was just a fool, I guess."

Much more later after he had gone Zoe reviewed the scene, remembering the way he had looked—the hurt in his eyes. She tucked the tell-tale document away in an envelope and had mailed it to Katharine at Silencia, Roanoke, New Mexico. With that out of her hands, she felt definitely safer.

It was a pity Dr. Kaye had had to learn the news this way. If it had not been for Grace and her useful shepherd dog it never would have happened. Grace was definitely a trouble maker but this time she had been an unwitting one.

Zoe went through the morning room. Gerda was picking up fallen flower petals; there were late chrysanthemums in all the vases. Gerda turned nodding something out to Zoe. "I guess the doctor dropped this."

Zoe took it. John Kaye's pig skin glove it was a special golfing glove, one of an old and beloved pair. She recognized it.

"Thanks, Gerda. I'll see he gets it."

JOHN KAYE went back to the Strykhurst house with a heavy heart. That Katharine should be actually married to another man was a stunning blow. But that she hadn't confided the news to him was more crushing still.

Poor child—she had few people to confide in the young physician mused, watching Bertine preside at her dinner table later. Bertine were there too. Gerda hung her self down on the taffeta-covered chaise longue and closed her eyes. She had John Kaye's glove in her hand. How he must have loved Kaye to look so troubled when he learned of her deception!

Zoe shivered a little; there was a man any girl might love with an aching tenderness. She had at last noticed him growing up, but he had been Katharine's special friend. Then the alien in her worked over Zoe after her mad attempt to kill herself she had begun to think of him again. She had refused to admit it, nating to mark herself as light and feckle, but actually before she had reached Colorado on her trip in search of health she had admitted Dr. Kaye to the secret places of her heart. Gibbs had thus been easily blotted out. She could look back at Gibbs now as at a far-off figure in another existence. She had grown up since that night.

She wouldn't be foolish about this. She'd keep out of John Kaye's way. She respected him, honored him. If the sound of his quiet, authoritative voice stirred her more than a little, she would let her feeling go no further than that, but oh what a lucky girl she would be who was singled out by this serious, gentle, hard-working young man!

"Not for me," said Zoe springing to her feet and dashing into the bathroom to run a luxurious tub.

"Talking to yourself, darling?" Mrs. Parker wandered in, wrapped in a negligee of dull rose and pretty hair set in scalloped and delicately pinned waves.

"I was just muttering away," Zoe said gaily.

Zoe's mother established herself on the chaise.

"I was just talking to Daddy about the move into town, and he's for it," she said animatedly. "He found a penthouse in a building over east—57th street. I think he said, 'Anyhow the oddest thing—Dr. Kaye lives in the building.'"

Zoe, bending over a half-opened drawer of gossamer underthings, felt a rosy tide of color flooding her cheeks. She gave herself a steady moment before she answered.

"That comes under the head of coincidences doesn't it?"

Her tone was so dry that Mrs. Parker said, rather anxiously, "You don't like him, darling? Is that it?"

Zoe hastened to deny this. "Oh I think he's an admirable person—but hardly in my age and weight class, do you think?"

"Darling, don't be flippant! And do promise to be courteous to him when we meet."

"I can promise that, well enough," Zoe said. "Dearest Mums, don't worry. I'll be lovely to him. At least I don't suppose we'll see him much. That's the way apartment house life is; you never see your next-door neighbor."

But in her heart she was hoping she was wrong.

JOHN KAYE went back to the Strykhurst house with a heavy heart. That Katharine should be actually married to another man was a stunning blow. But that she hadn't confided the news to him was more crushing still.

Poor child—she had few people to confide in the young physician mused, watching Bertine preside at her dinner table later. Bertine massaged, cosseted, groomed to the last inch of her healthy, middle-aged body beamed at him little suspecting the thoughts her young kinsman was directing at her.

"Gracia is coming over for oridge later, John. Can we count on your support?"

He answered as graciously as he could. His thoughts were far-away. "I'll be glad to, although I may have a call from town. Miss Mearsham telephoned me just before dinner. She's to call later. Something about a consultation at the Medical Centre—"

Bertine pouted. "Oh, you doctors! Always on the wing. I hope it doesn't go through. Gracia will be so disappointed. You know her engagement to Captain Byrne was off, didn't you? Gracia decided they just weren't meant for each other."

John Kaye scarcely knew what he ate. The soufflé on his plate was delicious. He scarcely touched it. His office nurse telephoned just as coffee was being served in the drawing room and as Gracia McIlvaine bustled in.

"Why Dr. John, we meet again! Wasn't that dog fight too awful?"

Drat the woman, thought the man, resentfully making his excuses and plunging out to the telephone.

Miss Mearsham was properly apologetic. The doctor needn't come in tonight, after all. Dr. Abbott said tomorrow morning would do just as well.

JOHN KAYE came back to the drawing room and tied manfully. He had to rush he said. He would be back as quickly as he could. Perhaps they would not have finished the rubber—Regrettably Gracia watched him go. John could hear Victor Strykhurst telephoning Mrs. Willett, asking if Lucy wanted to make a fourth. He felt guilty, but escape was too tempting.

Driving past the Parker's gateway, he felt an unaccountable impulse to see Zoe again. Her warm and impulsive sympathy had been very sweet that afternoon. Perhaps he could talk to her about Katharine.

The girl who came toward him was fragrant in delicate blue lace. Her brown curls rioted about her small head. Her eyes were fringed with dark lashes.

"Why, Zoe's a beauty," thought John Kaye surprised that he had not noticed it before. He had always counted her a mere child, frivolous and amusing. Today she had shown a sweeter, deeper, more womanly side? Some ancient scales seemed to have fallen from his eyes—

For a moment they stood, regarding each other. Then the man said, haltingly, "I thought I dropped a glove here today—"

Zoe shook her head. "Don't believe me. Gerda would have given it to me if you had."

That glove was in her childish treasure box, along with other hoarded mementoes.

"Some day, perhaps," thought the girl with sudden prescience, "I shall tell him about it."

"May I stay long enough to smoke a cigarette?" the man asked, glancing from the book she held to the glowing grate fire.

Zoe's heart cried, "Stay a long time, my darling."

But she was all demureness as she answered him.

RED SOX NEED PITCHING TO CLIMB AGAIN

Tigers Hit White Sox For 9 to 5 Vic- tory

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

It begins to look as if the Boston Red Sox again will have to take a place among the also-rans of the American league until they can get more effective pitching.

Several other clubs are in the same predicament and the Sox haven't stopped trying, but the won and lost records speak for themselves. Wes Ferrell has the best record of the Boston flingers, and he has taken his bumps frequently, absorbing his eighth defeat of the season against ten victories yesterday.

Lefty Grove with six victories and six defeats and Johnny Welch with a 5-5 record are the other standbys. None of the other members of the mound corps has proved dependable.

The Sox just couldn't do anything right yesterday against the Athletics, who couldn't do anything wrong, and Philadelphia won 14 to 2. While Johnny Marcum was pitching four-hit ball for the A's, Pinky Higgins connected for three home runs, two with runners on base. Bob Johnson slammed his 17th circuit drive of the season, and Marcum tossed in one among the 15 swat of Ferrell and Henry Johnson.

Wallop Senators

The Yankees, belting four pitchers for 19 hits, including Ben Chapman's homer inside the park, walloped Washington 15 to 5 and increased their lead over the idle Cleveland Indians to 3 1-2 games.

The only bright spot of the game for the Senators, who made 14 hits off Red Ruffing and still couldn't get anywhere, was the mound debut of Ralph (Red) Kress, veteran utility infielder who apparently has decided to follow in the footsteps of Bucky Walters of the Phillies. He appeared in the eighth, just after a seven-run Yankee rally, and struck out the side after giving one hit.

The Tigers went after the third place White Sox with a home run barrage topped by Hank Greenberg's twentieth four-ple drive of the year and came out with a 9 to 5 decision, which put them into a virtual tie with the Pale Hose. Pete Fox, Charley Gehringer and Mickey Cochrane also hit Tiger homers while Mule Haas got one for the Sox.

The Braves and Phillies slugged it out in a doubleheader, the only National league affair scheduled. Boston won the opener 11 to 1 as Dutch Brandt pitched five-hit ball and Wally Berger smashed his 15th homer with the bases loaded. The Braves threatened to capture the second game, bringing the count up from 7-0 to 7-7 in the late innings but finally went down 8 to 7 when Johnny Vergez hit for the circuit in the ninth.

Joe Poises for 'the Kill'

Deadly fists poised, Joe Louis, a brown thunderbolt, stands tensely waiting behind the battered and bleeding Primo Carnera down in the sixth round of their battle at Yankee Stadium. A right cross to the jaw toppled the Ambling Alp for the first time in this round, and twice more he crashed to the floor under smashing lefts before Referee Donovan halted the fray, to award it to the Detroit bomber on a technical knockout.

Rain Stops S-Ball Game But Millways Overcome Winks Specials 6 to 0

Six Inning Tussle Called Legal in the Standings

Rain halted the opening softball game between the rising Millway Chix and the Winks. Specials last night, but the resultant 6 to 0 lead as the tilt went into the sixth frame was allowed and the game recorded in the league standings as a victory for the Chix. The second game of the night was cancelled.

Swain pitching for the Millway permitted only two hits in the five innings the Winks stepped to the plate, one in the first and another in the fifth. The Millways were held fairly well in check until the opening of the sixth when they blasted loose with four hits for as many more runs. In the third, Swain smashed a long homer into right field and in the sixth inning scoring merry-go-round, Kays belted a homer to count Lebre who had singled.

Independents To Clash With Old Timers Sunday

Dixon's Independents their prestige raised by the decisive victory over the Chicago Red Horse S. G. baseball nine, will entertain Dixon fans at the Airport at 2:30 P. M. Sunday, in a game with the Dixon Old Timers.

This game promises to be thrilling and amusing. The Old Timers composed of such former greats as Frank Dashbach, Ward T. Miller, a former Cub big leaguer, Robert Woodyatt, who will probably act as pitcher for the Old Boys, and who tried out for minor league play, James Devine, Chet Whitebread, C. A. Peterson, and Hi Emmert.

Opposing them in the Independent line-up will be Kuhn, Kays, Joe Miller, Rink, Evans, Kelsey, "Shires" Miller and others. A large crowd is expected to witness the encounter.

Another game with the Chicago Red Horses is being planned for July 7, here. It was rumored that the winner of the game will take the gate receipt "in totem" for both contests. Such a prize is expected to inspire both nines to fierce action. The Independents' hero in the last contest Sunday, was Royal Kays who reached base on an error and sneaking around to third scored Dixon's only tally racing to home after being caught in a hot box between home and third. A catcher's error allowed him to score.

Primo Down for Third and Last Time

A punch-dazed, bleeding hulk, battered to the resin for the third time by the flying fists of Joe Louis, Primo Carnera rocks on his huge hands in this picture, the timer's hand rising and falling. A moment later, in this sixth round, Referee Arthur Donovan halted the fight to award it to the Detroit Brown Bomber on a technical knockout. Felled twice by a right cross and a left, the Italian mastodon went down for the last time when another left crashed against his blood-smeared chin, as 7,000 spectators roared their tribute in Yankee Stadium to the new thunderbolt of the ring.

LOUIS SIGNS UP FOR LEVINSKY BOUT, AUGUST

New York, June 28 —(AP)—While New York promoters debate whether Max Baer or Max Schmeling will be his next metropolitan opponent, Joe Louis is making hay while the sun beams down.

As a tune-up for Baer or Schmeling the "Brown Bomber" has agreed to take on the debatable King Levinsky in Chicago in August. In line with their "fight a month" policy, his managers say they are not averse to another tilt sometime in July.

No opponent is barred. The only stipulation is that the price must be right.

Just when or where whose auspices the Levinsky fight will be held is undecided. Nate Lewis and Joe Foley, rival promoters, are bidding against each other, and Louis' managers have asked Mike Jacobs promoter for the Twentieth Century Sporting club, to decide. Jacobs will go to Chicago Monday to award the plum.

PERRY WINNER BRITISH OPEN

Young English Golfer's
Scores Remarkable
in Near Games

Muirfield, June 29—(AP)—Alfred Perry, 30-year-old British Ryder Cup team player, won the British open golf championship today with final rounds of 67 and 72 for a record-equaling total of 283.

Perry's finishing rounds, collectively representing five strokes under par and made in the face of a wind that at times approached gale force, brought to an end the meteoric reign of Henry Cotton, winner at Sandwich a year ago. Cotton completed the 72-hole grind over the Muirfield course with rounds of 76 and 75 for an aggregate of 293.

Perry, who previously had failed to finish in the money in the open championship, had a 12 foot putt on the final green to set a new low score for the tournament. He putted boldly for the cup and a birdie three but the ball slid inches past. As it was he tied the winning record score of 283 hung up by Gene Sarazen in 1932 and duplicated by Cotton last year at Sandwich.
